Oceanic Terminal Piers Are Burned

Associated Press
Portland, Ore., Oct. 19. - Fire raged through the two piers of the Oceanic Terminal on Portland's north shore waterfront today.

Four alarms brought out most of the fire-fighting equipment in the city. Two hours after the fire was discovered it was still burning fiercely.

Three coastwise freighters, the Brimanger, Dintelyk and Victoria City, were docked at the terminal.

All freighters at the $800,000 terminal were moved to midstream. The fire broke out in a pile of logs where a cigarette had been carelessly tossed.

MUNITIONS MEN'S LIVES MENACED

Associated Press
Washington, Oct. 19. - Warnings that United States munitions salesmen risk death if they appear in some South American countries have reached the munitions investigating committee.

Stephen Baughenbush, chief investigator for the committee whose revelations caused a stir in South America, warned yesterday evening of a tense situation in some of the countries.

He said the investigators had "private reports" that the "safety" of the agents of American arms companies will not be protected in South America after their way of doing business was exposed.

Saanich Council Mad At Relief Agreement

"Let's Throw Up the Works," Councilors Shout as Government's Proposals Discussed; Let Government Run Municipality They Say

Irrespective of action taken by other districts, Saanich is prepared to drop unemployment relief entirely unless the Dominion Government rescinds its decision to make a block grant monthly towards British Columbia municipalities. Yesterday evening, in one of the stormiest sessions in the council chamber this year, it was unanimously agreed the whole responsibility of caring for the unemployed would be thrown back at the government, unless it was prepared to modify its action.

The federal move brought forth a burst of protest from every member of the council. They all refused to cut relief allowances to municipal recipients one iota, and were prepared to have a complete showdown with the provincial and federal governments over the question.

The circular letter advising the council of the change of administration policy was viewed as a move on the part of the Dominion authorities to gradually saddle municipalities with the entire costs of relief.

Members of the council felt so strongly in the matter, they asserted they would be willing to allow the government to step in and take over the control of the municipality, if necessary.

"They're going to get us whether we like it or not," was the first comment from Councilor L. C. Hagan, Ward Six, after the circular letter had been read.

"This is a good chance for us to throw up our hands," said Councilor W. R. Woods, Ward Four.

THROW IT BACK
"I move we throw it right back at them," said Councilor E. G. Warren, Ward Two.

"This whole thing is a move to saddle the whole burden of relief on the municipalities," interjected Reeve William Crouch. "After receiving this in the morning mail I went in to see Mayor Leeming, and he certainly was made. I can go up in the air at times, but nothing like Dave Leeming can."

REPRIVE FOR THREE INDIANS

Appeal Court Will Rule on Georges' Case on Dec. 4

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Oct. 19. - Judgment on the appeal of Richardson, Ennas and Alex. George from a conviction of the murder of Dominion Constable F. H. Gibson will be rendered on December 4 in Victoria and a reprieve will have to be granted to a date later than that, Chief Justice J. A. Macdonald announced to-day.

An application will be made to a Supreme Court judge for a reprieve, Attorney-General Gordon Sloan, who prosecuted, and Stuart Henderson, defence counsel, will arrange a suitable date subject to the approval of the Supreme Court. The men were sentenced at the Vernon assizes to be hanged October 26.

Mr. Justice A. E. McPhillips expressed the opinion in the Court of Appeal that the case was the most important which had come before the criminal courts of Canada. He stressed the seriousness of three lives at stake.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL ARGUES
Mr. Sloan resumed his argument on section 40 of the Criminal Code. He contended the arrest of Ennas George, which led to the slaying of Gibson and Provincial Constable Percy Carr on May 23, was legal and that the court should not reduce the crime from murder to manslaughter.

PROVINCE IS READY TO ACT

If Municipalities Throw Up Hands Pattullo Says Government Will Step In

If any municipality throws up its hands and refuses to give relief, the provincial government would step in and administer the service, the cost being charged to the municipality on the regular basis, Premier said to-day in connection with protests arising on the new provincial policy on division of the reduced federal relief grant.

The government, he said, could not sit by and see unemployed starve through lack of action by municipal authorities.

So far the only serious threats of refusal to accept the new division have come from Saanich and Esquimalt, although the other municipalities certainly do not welcome the cut.

British Columbia is not the only province where a similar situation has developed. According to unofficial advice, municipalities in Manitoba and Alberta have been forced to bear the full load of the reduction in the federal grant.

That the British Columbia government is absorbing the cut for the months of August and September was taken as an indication it had planned to take over the whole burden, but with relief less beginning to creep up as the winter approaches, this would be impossible.

It was learned that when negotiations with Ottawa were carried on, this province asked the lump sum grant be fixed at $232,000, based on last year's relief costs. This was refused. The amount was set at $150,000. Even with $200,000, the province might get by without imposing added burdens on the cities.

In adopting the policy of dividing the grant on a proportionate basis, the province proposes both municipal and provincial resources share the burden.

THROW IT BACK
"I move we throw it right back at them," said Councilor E. G. Warren, Ward Two.

"This whole thing is a move to saddle the whole burden of relief on the municipalities," interjected Reeve William Crouch. "After receiving this in the morning mail I went in to see Mayor Leeming, and he certainly was made. I can go up in the air at times, but nothing like Dave Leeming can."

NEW WIRE SERVICE

Canadian Press Cable
Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 19. - The short-lived Melbourne tramwaymen's strike was terminated to-day when a compromise was reached regarding the men's demand for an increase of 50 cents a day and better working conditions.

Under the compromise the men will not get the raise, but they share a "century bonus" of $40,000. There are 3,000 employees.

One of the factors in the early settlement was the efficiency of the emergency motor transport service, which had been carefully organized in order the centenary celebrations, just under way, should not be affected by the strike.

Hon. W. J. Patterson, above, Minister of Telephones in Saskatchewan, announced a couple of days ago the provincial government was going into some form of telegraph business, which would involve the leasing of telephone wire to certain parties.

Jugoslav Troops Reported Sent To Hungary Border

Neutral Observers in King Peter's Country Said to Regard Situation As Dangerous

Associated Press
Maribor, Yugoslavia, Oct. 19. - An unconfirmed report from a usually reliable source to-day said Yugoslav troops were concentrating along the Hungarian border.

Neutral observers here regarded the situation along the Hungarian-Yugoslav frontier as "dangerous."

Four former opponents of the regime of the late King Alexander were freed to-day from the government ban against them. They are Dr. Korosek, former Premier of Yugoslavia, Dr. Kulovec, Dr. Natlican and Dr. Obrivic.

It was generally believed here that a general amnesty would be granted to all Croatian leaders who are in prison.

NEW DEAL
The release of these four prominent leaders of the Slovenian clerical party was viewed here as inaugurating a "new deal" in Yugoslavia's internal policy and as the death of the harsh military regime instituted by King Alexander.

The amnesty affecting the Croatian leaders at present in jail was expected to be extended to a large number of Croatian political leaders.

PREDICTS ELECTION

He Led German Army Which Failed to Take Paris in August, 1914

Canadian Press-Havas
Berlin, Oct. 19. - General von Kluck, commander of the first 1914 German drive on Paris, died to-day. The warrior, whose active career in the Great War ended with shrapnel wounds in March, 1915, and caused him to be put on the retired list a year later, was in his eighty-ninth year.

Von Kluck's name will always be remembered in Germany as that of the man who looked like winning the war as soon as it started—before the first drive of the Germans was checked and the initial Allied retreat stopped.

ACHIEVEMENT
It was Von Kluck's forces that drove the "Old Contemptible" from Mons, and the Allies from point after point in those dark days of August, 1914. But Von Kluck failed to wipe out the British, near Metz. For his conduct on that occasion he received the Iron Cross of the second class.

Associated Press
Seattle, Oct. 19. - Elmer E. Landin and his wife, Mary, of Seattle, were crushed and horribly burned to death to-day when a big gasoline truck crashed into the automobile in which they were riding at the north end of the Ballard bridge.

The impact threw the passenger car against a telephone pole and a tangle of wires. The car was crushed and the gasoline tank was smashed. The truck driver, Chauncey Kithcart, was not injured, and 5,000 gallons of gasoline in the truck was saved.

Coroner William J. Jones and police declared the Landins had failed to stop for an arterial. The passenger machine was badly smashed, and Coroner Jones said he believed the Landins were killed instantly.

RECORD SEARCHED

Associated Press
New York, Oct. 19. - Edward F. Breslin, chief assistant district attorney in the Bronx, said to-day the Majestic Hotel employment records examined "thus far show" that Bruno Richard Hauptmann "did not work on March 1, 1932."

Defence counsel, through the aid of two witnesses produced after Hauptmann's writ of habeas corpus was dismissed in the supreme court in the Bronx, is attempting to introduce new testimony tending to show that the little band of travelers, which included Hauptmann, did not work on March 1, 1932, the day the Lindbergh baby was kidnapped, and thereby prevent the extradition of Hauptmann to New Jersey to face an indictment charging he murdered the infant.

The records, Breslin said, "show he started work March 21, 1932. They show further he worked only two days in April, 1932."

Now that arguments on "stop and go" signals are all the rage, Victorians might well take a leaf from the book of Oakland, California, which is experimenting with a method of suggestive enforcement that has given excellent results.

Let a public works department official who saw the system operating, tell the story:
"I was waiting at an intersection for the traffic lights to change when suddenly I heard a pleasant, mellow voice rolling out above the noise of motors and horns.
"The lady in the red hat is jay-walking. She should go back to the curb. She is jay-walking. Jay-walking. Jay-walking."
Halfway across the intersection the lady in the red hat halted, confused, blushed and then stepped back to the sidewalk.

"As the traffic lights changed and the pedestrians started across the road, the voice boomed out again: 'The green coupe is going against the light. It must go back. It must go back.' It doesn't go back it will get a ticket."
"The green coupe reversed quickly. After some minutes of wondering where the voice had come from, I finally noticed a car parked at one of the corners, with four loudspeakers on the roof. In it were two policemen, doing the talking.
"The whole thing was cleverly done," he concluded. "The voice was so impersonal one could not take offence. Incidentally the descriptions left no doubt as to who was breaking the rules."

Japan Cabinet Is Facing Test

Associated Press
Tokyo, Oct. 19. - A determination by the Japanese Army to dominate the Japanese Empire's Manchurian policies, by force if necessary, confronted the three-month-old cabinet of Premier Keisuke Okada to-day with the danger of a downfall.

A long-drawn-out dispute regarding the complex scheme of the reorganization of Japanese organs in Manchuria and the fundamental issue of the military versus civilians has reached a dangerous crisis, with the army supposed to be preparing to suppress opposition forcibly there.

Contentious of political writers is that if the dispute becomes worse or if there is bloodshed, Premier Okada must assume the responsibility and resign, in which event the succeeding cabinet probably would be dominated even more firmly by the army, with a military premier a possibility.

Reliable dispatches reaching Tokyo but not published here indicated the Japanese army in Manchuria was preparing to seize communication and establish a military rule at Kwantung.

POLICE BELIEVE CAPTURE NEAR

Man Said to Be T. H. Robinson, Alleged Kidnapper, Chased in Pennsylvania

Associated Press
Philadelphia, Oct. 19.—A man believed to be the kidnapper of Mrs. Berry V. Stoll, who disappeared at seven miles an hour to-day with Delaware state police in pursuit, was chased in Pennsylvania.

Springfield, O., Oct. 19.—One jump ahead of the law, the man hunted as the kidnapper of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll left along his trail to-day evading a search for the car, containing three men, was concentrated in Philadelphia and adjoining towns.

Department of Justice agents, studying tell-tale marks that Thomas H. Robinson Jr. carried here during his foxlike flight from Indianapolis, where the Louisville, Ky., society woman was held, set out on new excursions, apparently by fresh clues on the line of flight.

With reports that the fugitive had been seen at Dayton, O., and numerous other points, Melvin Purvis, Department of Justice ace and nemesis of the notorious John Dillinger, sped out of the city after a hurried visit yesterday evening, but kept his own counsel. Three other investigators left also, ostensibly for Cincinnati.

BILLS FOUND
Robinson left in the hands of his pursuers an automobile bearing license plates originally issued to his wife, his overcoat, a suitcase and three Federal Reserve notes, identified by their serial numbers as part of the $50,000 ransom money paid by Berry V. Stoll for the release of his wife.

DENY ACCUSATIONS
Louisville, Ky., Oct. 19.—Legal battle lines were drawn to-day as the United States Government moved swiftly to punish those involved in the kidnapping of Mrs. Berry V. Stoll.

While federal agents hunted Thomas H. Robinson Jr. as the actual kidnapper, his wife, Mrs. Frances Robinson, and his father, Thomas H. Robinson Sr., were accused of taking part in the crime, an accusation both denied.

Both said they had been of service to officers in effecting release of the wealthy society matron whose family paid $50,000 to end her six days' captivity.

Mrs. Robinson was held in jail here in default of $50,000 bond. The elder Robinson, at liberty in $25,000 bond at Nashville.

United States District Attorney Thomas J. Sparks assembled evidence to-day to determine whether or not Judge Charles I. Dawson to-morrow.

Sparks predicted indictments would be returned against the kidnappers of the woman. He said he had talked to the same prisoner before Mrs. Stoll was released last Tuesday evening, but had received no information. He was merely checking every possible clue, he added.

QUESTIONS ASKED
Louisville, Ky., Oct. 19.—William Stoll, brother-in-law of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, to-day interrogated a prisoner in Jefferson County jail in connection with the kidnapping of the woman.

He said he had talked to the same prisoner before Mrs. Stoll was released last Tuesday evening, but had received no information. He was merely checking every possible clue, he added.

GOLD BLOC'S DEBATING PLANS

But Brussels Conference Will Not Bring Britain Back to Gold Standard

Associated Press
London, Oct. 19.—There is no chance of Great Britain returning to the gold standard as a result of measures to be taken at to-day's meeting of gold bloc nations at Brussels, well-informed financial circles say.

The government has officially proclaimed its intention to maintain the independence of the pound. This policy is expected to be supported as long as there is any possibility of currency fluctuations in other countries.

Plans to protect the gold standard were scheduled to be made at Brussels to-day by the gold bloc nations, representatives from France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands, Switzerland and Luxembourg.

It was stated in Paris the first problem of the leaders participating in the session would be to improve economic relations among themselves. If that difficulty was met satisfactorily, the next step would be to discuss the London government to return to the gold standard.

The nations on gold need larger exports, it was explained by an official authority on international trade.

PASSENGER PLANE REPORTED MISSING

Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 19.—An air liner with ten passengers aboard was reported missing on the Melbourne, Australia, to Melbourne, route.

The plane, flying the 265-mile route to Melbourne across Bass Strait to Melbourne, left at the usual time, but has not been seen since.

New Extension Work By U.B.C.

Plans Made For Use of $50,000 Grant From Carnegie Corporation

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Oct. 19.—Details of the disposal of the $50,000 grant made this year to the University of British Columbia by the Carnegie Corporation of America were announced to-day by Dr. L. S. Killick, president of the university.

The sum of $50,000 will be provided to increase the usefulness of the university to the people of the province by an organized extension of external activities, including particularly the organization and supervision of adult education under university auspices.

Although a definite plan has not been evolved, it is expected a department will be organized at the university to handle organized lecture tours and extension courses throughout the province. Last year more than 30,000 persons heard outside lectures by university professors, and it is expected the scope and benefits of adult education will be greatly widened under the new organization.

A sum of $10,000 will be devoted to payment of a portion of the traveling expenses of members of the staff wishing to attend meetings of learned societies to present papers prepared by them. It is believed this grant will enable the university to acquire a higher reputation among kindred institutions.

The remaining $40,000 will provide scholarships to enable graduate students of marked ability to continue their studies at the University of British Columbia, or in another approved university. It will further provide equipment required for such graduate work in the University of British Columbia.

"Your remarks are quite true, except that I am not a bitter Tory partisan, that I am not a millionaire; that, thank goodness, I am not eighty years of age, and that I have never got a dollar of money in my life from the Ontario Government or any other government."

"If you refer to the salaries of the Ottawa Hydro Commission, that money is paid entirely by the city of Ottawa."

Gen. Von Kluck Passes A Way

He attracted the attention of the Duke (then hereditary prince) of Saxony, who recommended him to Kaiser Wilhelm I. From then on promotion came rapidly. Kaiser Wilhelm II conferred noble rank on him in 1909, thus insuring the "von" in his name. He held commanding posts in Bromberg, Gielitz, Allenstein, Königsberg, and finally Berlin, where he was appointed inspector-general in 1913.

By that time he was sixty-eight, and like Von Hindenburg, was looked on as a reliable man. Few people outside Germany had ever heard of Von Kluck, but the dramatic first thirty days of the World War changed all that.

His short-lived fame rose meteorically in August, 1914.

"The man who nearly took Paris," always recalled to Germans of the old school that first month of the Great War, when their victorious armies, after sweeping through Belgium, came within an ace of enveloping the French capital.

TURN OF TIDE
It was Von Kluck, as commander of the German First Army in the west, whose name was in everybody's mouth when official bulletins announced on September 3, 1914, that his cavalry patrols were "sweeping westward of Paris." Great was the jubilation in the fatherland, after barely a month of fighting, victories pointed to another peace of Versailles like the one that ended the Franco-Prussian conflict of 1870-71, and evolved into proclamation of a greater Germany.

Then the tide turned. Von Kluck's troops were diverted to help General von Buelow's second army, which had got into difficulties through a French-British counter move. Tactical blunders, it was stated, had here missed a chance not likely to occur in war.

HOPES DASHED
The outcome of the Battle of the Marne dashed German hopes of capturing Paris. Von Kluck withdrew to the Aisne position, where he was seriously wounded, March 29, 1915, by shrapnel splinters while surveying positions in the front trenches near Chateau Vauxel. He had to give up his command and was placed on the retired list in October of the following year.

living abroad. The liberation of Dr. Koroseh, once Alexander's Premier and later one of his most formidable opponents, was regarded as an expression of the regency's announced policy to bring real political peace to the Balkans.

HUNGARIAN DENIAL
Budaapest, Hungary, Oct. 19.—Premier Jullius Goemboos said to-day Hungary "is entirely guiltless of any connection with the foul crime" of the assassination of King Alexander.

"We can prove we had no hand in the king's murder or any other assassin," he said, "and the idea of Jugoslavia serving an ultimatum on us is too puerile to discuss. Jugoslavia has a good reason to remember it was an ultimatum served on old Serbia that provoked the Great War. Surely she does not wish to see Europe on fire again."

Premier Goemboos left for Warsaw for important political and economic conferences with the Polish government.

MASTER MIND HUNTED
Turin, Italy, Oct. 19 (Canadian Press from Havas).—Arrest of a third suspected master-mind in the assassination of King Alexander was impending to-day, his assumed name was Barberis, a common Piedmont name.

Base details only were divulged by the authorities, who are now holding Dr. Abte Pavelich and Egon Kvaternik, so-called ringleaders, in Turin jail at French request.

Pavelich and Kvaternik denied complicity when arrested yesterday and to-day still were prepared to fight extradition, it was said.

Italy did not indicate whether or not she was ready to surrender Pavelich and Kvaternik.

TOYS TO BROTHERS
Belgrade, Jugoslavia, Oct. 19.—King Peter gave his toys to his brothers to-day.

The eleven-year-old monarch, having recovered from the first shock of his father's assassination, began his reign by turning his playthings over to Tomislav and Andrew, who danced with joy.

The king took an early morning ride with his brothers through neighboring woods. He was mounted on a big, brown, spirited horse which Alexander gave him on his tenth birthday to replace the fat old pony on which he had learned to ride.

He then returned to the palace, where he received a number of Jugoslav delegations, who came here for his father's funeral.

After receiving other visitors, Peter started his lessons under his tutor, C. C. Parrot, who returned with him from London. Peter's favorite subjects are spelling, composition, history and drawing. He dislikes mathematics, botany and geography.

Huge Crowds at Start Of Great Plane Race

eyes at the sky to-day as they made final preparations for a race halfway around the world.

Twenty-one planes are expected to soar away to-morrow in quest of the fat prizes that await the winners in Melbourne. The race will be in two sections, speed and handicap, and several pilots have entered both.

The entrants are fervently hoping for good weather, for the 11,321-mile trail will take them over sea, mountains and desert.

As it now stands, the field includes nine British entries, two from Australia, two from New Zealand, one from the Irish Free State, one from British New Guinea, three from the United States, two from Holland and one from Denmark.

HANDICAPS MADE
The first definite indication of how quickly the fastest plane may reach Melbourne was given when officials provisionally assigned the twin engine monoplane of Capt. T. Neville Stack of England a handicap allowance of 46 hours 45 minutes 56 seconds flying time in the handicap race.

These allowances will be subtracted from official flying time for the full route to determine winners of handicap prizes. Stack's allowance was based on a speed of 184.44 miles an hour.

The handicap is decided by a complicated formula based on the plane's theoretical performance. Allowances range upward of 108 hours 46 minutes, allotted the red and silver monoplane of Lieut. M. Hansen of Copenhagen.

Officials indicated that if James Woods of Australia is successful in getting a revised ruling from the United States Department of Commerce he might become scratch man with the smallest allowance, because he has the fastest plane.

PRESENT RECORD
A worthy record to shatter is set for the twenty-one planes awaiting the starting flag.

The England-to-Melbourne route was covered a year ago by Charles T. P. Uim and three companions in six days 17 hours 56 minutes. Wiley Post, in his solo world flight, covered a distance of 15,596 miles in 7 days 18 hours 49 minutes.

REPAIRS COMPLETED
The field was complete to-day when repairs were finished on one of the three specially-built Comet airplanes, that to be piloted by Ken Waller and Cathart Jones of London, which nosed over after a landing yesterday.

The plane was ready for a final test flight, one of its damaged propellers having been fixed while the other was replaced by a spare—the only one left in the world—from the De Havilland Works.

MOLLIFIERS OFF FIRST
As result of a ballot for starting places, that famous pair, the flying Mollifions, will lead the take-off. Col. Roscoe Turner and Clyde Pangborn, United States aces, will follow. Last to go will be the young Australian, C. J. Melrose.

PRINCE SEES PLANES
Canadian Press and Associated Press
Maidenhall Aldrome, England, Oct. 19.—John H. Wright of Utica, N.Y.,

long had the ambition of seeing the Prince of Wales. He more than achieved this to-day, for it developed into a case of the Prince seeing Wright.

The air-minded Prince, bareheaded, wearing a big checked coat over his gray suit, and his feet clad in brown suede shoes, came out to inspect the planes which will take off to-morrow in the race to Melbourne, Australia.

He went to the machines, in readiness outside their hangars, clambered up on each, peered into each cockpit, and then, with his hands clasped behind his back, walked around each in turn while officials and mechanics explained to him the technical details of each ship.

After the inspection, the Prince stood back and watched Wright put in an aerial display. The demonstrator turned the nose of his ship almost straight up in a display of steep climbing, then went into a series of Immelman turns for his audience.

The Prince shook hands with all the competitors.

The handicapping was completed to-day and it gave Wright a handicap speed of 154.02 miles an hour and a time allowance of 79 hours 47 minutes, thereby ranking him as the seventh fastest in the handicap section of the race.

C. W. A. Scott of London was ranked as the officially fastest in that section with a speed of 184.44 miles an hour and a 66 hours, 45 minutes, 56 seconds time allowance.

he was going to give the franchise to every Oriental in the province.

"The majority of the Liberals in the next House is going to be so large," the speaker continued, "that it is going to be difficult to keep them to their promises, but I promise you the British Columbia Liberal contingent will live up to their promises."

Referring to the Stevens' Price Spread Commission, Mr. Mackenzie said he had an idea that the "famous Toronto speech of Mr. Stevens" was given to the commission, and that he had something to say to Mr. Bennett and Mr. Stevens' differences over Vancouver Harbor Board matters.

Any abuse of the commission uncovered, he said, would be rectified by the Liberals when they reached office. He criticized Mr. Stevens for commenting on the inquiry before all the evidence had been heard on both sides.

OTHER SPEAKERS
J. A. Russell occupied the chair and Mr. Mackenzie was placed in nomination by the veteran campaigner, Alex. Henderson, who recalled he had also nominated Mr. Mackenzie for the last federal campaign. J. P. McLean Hong seconded the motion, while Mrs. Thompson, president of the Women's Liberal Association, spoke in support of it, and moved that nominations close.

In addition to the candidate, other prominent Liberals addressed the gathering, including Hon. Gordon Sloan, Attorney-General; T. Reid, M.P. for New Westminster; J. G. Turgeon, Liberal federal candidate in Carleton Place; and Mr. E. Mun, M.P. for North Vancouver. Robert Wilkinson, M.P.P.; Brenton S. Brown, first vice-president, Vancouver Centre Liberal Association; and other well known Liberal workers were on the platform.

W. F. Hanbury, M.P. for Vancouver-Burrard and Gordon Wisner, M.P.P., sent their regrets, having been called out of the city.

Columbia St. Diversion in New Westminster Part of Pacific Highway

Canadian Press
New Westminster, Oct. 19.—The Columbia Street diversion here, latest link in the Pacific Highway system, was formally opened to traffic at noon yesterday. The diversion was built at a cost of $127,000.

Hon. A. Wells Gray, Minister of Lands and Municipal Affairs, cut the ribbon across the highway. Hon. F. M. MacPherson, minister of Public Works, also attended.

"This is one of my happiest days, seeing the realization of a scheme that dates back to 1919," Mr. Gray said. "Interrupted by the war, it was revived in 1927 and brought to completion."

RADIO FINES ARE WARNING

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Oct. 19.—Radio owners delinquent in paying their license fees may find the long arm of the law reaching out after them. The radio branch of the Department of Marine is now resorting to legal action.

A limited number of prosecutions have already been launched on a wide front, and it is proposed to follow them up with more. The prosecutions are widely scattered in order to attract public attention. So far the prosecutions have been quite effective and license fees are now coming in at a better rate.

The department is aiming at a revenue of $1,500,000 from radio license fees, and with the fee at $2 this means something more than 750,000 licenses for the whole of Canada, allowing for commissions and other expenses incidental to collection.

BAREBACK RIDERS
IN HOT CONTESTS

Canadian Press
New York, Oct. 19.—The hot race between two Alberta cowpunchers for the aggregate money prize in the bareback bronco-busting contest at the Madison Square Garden rodeo continued today.

George McIntosh of Calgary stayed aboard a snorting, cantankerous bronco in yesterday evening's bareback event for eight seconds, that seemed a year and registered his second victory of the week. That put him on even terms with Herman Linder of Cardston, who won the event Sunday and Tuesday.

The Cardston "buster" went into the saddle bronco-riding class yesterday evening and took third place among the eleven entrants. Leo Murray, a Texas rider who has legs almost long enough to permit locking of his feet under anything but a dray horse, won the class.

Montreal, Oct. 19.—Sentence of twenty years in the penitentiary was imposed in the case of King's Bench here yesterday on Giovanna Tselos, seventy-one, who pleaded guilty to a manslaughter charge in connection with the killing of Nicole Barne.

Mrs. Tselos was indicted for murder along with her daughter, who is the widow of Sarno, Leonel Gagliardi and Angelo Donofrio. The other three were tried separately and sentenced to be hanged.

Mrs. Tselos's plea of guilty to the lesser charge was accepted by the crown.

ALBERTA WATER RULING DESIRED

National Resources Commission Looks Into Ownership of Waterpowers

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Oct. 19.—Who owns the water powers of Alberta—the Province or the Dominion? This knotty problem came before the Alberta National Resources Commission yesterday. It caused the council to appeal to their respective governments for specific instructions. They regarded it as a matter of policy which the governments should decide.

The Autonomy Act of 1905, which created the Province, retained to the Dominion Government natural resources, specifically including water powers. The agreements by which the resources were handed back to the province provinces in 1929 made no mention of water powers.

The same question came up in the inquiry respecting the Saskatchewan water powers, but was not of the great importance it is in Alberta with all the water powers of rivers from the Rockies.

J. MacGregor Stewart, Government counsel, said he was prepared to argue the agreement did hand back to the province the ownership of the water powers, although the name water powers was not included. He, however, wanted very definite instructions from the government in the matter, and suggested it might be necessary for the Supreme Court of Canada to decide on the proper interpretation.

LABOR OPPOSES
SIX SENATORS

Washington, Oct. 19.—The American Federation of Labor has turned thumbs down on six Republican senators as a result of its scrutiny of records and campaign contributions of Congressional candidates on their attitude toward organized labor.

Contrariwise, however, the federation made known its support of Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, former Republican who is running for re-election on the Progressive ticket against a Democrat.

Terminating them "enemies of labor," the federation called on its members to seek the defeat of Senators Felix Herbert of Rhode Island, Simon P. D'Arcy of Ohio, David Reed of Pennsylvania, Henry Hatfield of West Virginia and Frederic Walcott of Connecticut, along with George M. Bourquin, Montana Republican senatorial nominee.

DAIRY CRISIS IN NEW ZEALAND

Canadian Press via Reuters
Wellington, N.Z., Oct. 19.—Unless early and effective measures are taken to rescue New Zealand's dairy industry from its present state, there will be a general breakdown in financial relations between Mortgagors and mortgagees, making it impossible for New Zealand to meet overseas debt interest charges, it was declared yesterday in the report of the Royal Commission which made an exhaustive inquiry into the dairy industry.

Conditions confronting the dairy industry had assumed the proportions of a national crisis, the report declared. It mentioned the British market was being flooded by the dumping of subsidized dairy produce from countries of the northern hemisphere, and Australia was also increasing its dairy output.

Celebrant Forgot About Repeal Act

Associated Press
Los Angeles, Oct. 19.—Hal M. Halvorson walked briskly across a downtown intersection here early today, a package under his arm.

Two policemen, in a patrol car, called on him to halt. He ran to the rear of his automobile and smashed the package. Wine ran out.

"Hey, what are you doing that for?" asked one policeman.

"Destroying the evidence," grinned Halvorson.

"Haven't you heard of repeal?" the officer exclaimed.

"I forgot all about it," said Halvorson ruefully.

And so Halvorson pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking glass in the street and received a suspended $10 fine.

The SECRET of DELICIOUS Cakes!

A good pie brings more compliments than anything else you can bake! Even if you're a beginner—you can make pies that are astonishingly fine by following these easy St. Charles recipes—crust so light and flaky—fillings so smooth and creamy—what pastry!

Borden's Special Pastry

1 1/4 cups flour.
3/4 teaspoon baking powder.
3/4 teaspoon salt.
3/4 cup shortening.
2 tablespoons ice water.
2 tablespoons St. Charles Milk.
Sift flour and measure. Add baking powder and salt. Sift again. Cut in shortening. Blend St. Charles Milk and water. Some flours absorb more liquid than others. Add just enough to make mixture stick together. Roll on slightly floured board. (In mixing and rolling handle as little as possible to insure flaky crust.) Makes one pie shell.

NOTE: For Baked Pie Shell bake 15 minutes in a hot oven (450° F.) or until delicately browned.

Custard Pie

1 1/4 cups St. Charles Milk.
1 1/4 cups water.
4 eggs.
3/4 cup granulated sugar.
3/4 teaspoon salt.
Unbaked pie crust (9 inch).
Grating of nutmeg.
Blend St. Charles Milk, water, slightly-beaten eggs, sugar and salt together. Line pie tin with unbaked pie crust. Build up fluted edge. Pour in filling. Sprinkle with nutmeg. Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) to set edge. Decrease heat and bake about 40 minutes in slow oven (300° F.) A knife blade inserted will come out clean when custard is done.

DECADES OF PROGRESS 1885-1894

The Passing of the Old West

Western Canada of 1885 was still the land of great free open spaces, the home of the hunter, trapper and fur trader . . . of the Indians and half breeds . . . all bitterly opposed to settlement and the invasion of Eastern civilization.

The Northwest Rebellion of 1885 led by Louis Riel and Gabriel Dumont was the last stand of the Old Regime against oncoming civilization.

The Rebellion was shorter lived than the unrest which led to it and which followed, but, one year after Louis Riel was hanged, Calgary Office of Imperial Bank of Canada opened in a shed near the site it occupies today. The following year the Bank's Inspector paid a visit and was surprised to find stone buildings, and a Town equipped with fire-fighting apparatus costing $20,000.

The first Western branch railroad line ran north from Calgary to the Saskatchewan River and the first train out of Calgary on this line carried two of the Bank's staff to open a branch across the Saskatchewan River in the "remote" village of Edmonton. For many years this branch was the most northerly banking office in Canada. Traffic came by the River and dealings were chiefly with fur-traders and trappers.

During this period branches of the Bank were opened cautiously in both East and West. Assets grew to thirteen millions and each year the shareholders received a fair return on their capital.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALINE MICHAELIS

YOUR DREAMS

When you have dreamed a golden dream
So long it is a part of you,
As needed as your hands and feet,
As vital as the heart of you,
Although it should not come to pass;
But leaves your days and hour lone,
Your life an autumn garden drear,
With all its birds and flowers flown,
O, never struggle to forget
That dream, nor let it perish there.
Still keep it bright in memory
Within your heart to cherish there!
For in the end the dream you had
Will come to be the whole of you,
Their wave the fairs of your life
Their stuff the shining soul of you!

TELLS SPIRIT OF "PARADISE"

Third Book of Dante's Divine Comedy Is Subject of First Extension Lecture

Something of the spirit of Dante hovered yesterday evening over a rapt audience at the first of the season's University Extension Society lectures, when Prof. G. G. Sedgewick spoke at Girls' Central School on "Dante's 'Paradise'."

More than 100 persons listened in a tense silence as the speaker gave what was to most of them an entirely new conception of the third book of the Divine Comedy.

"The 'Paradise' has been thought by some to be the dulllest book of the Comedy. It must be taken as a whole with the other two, like a portion of a Greek trilogy, of which one drama is never quite complete without the others," Prof. Sedgewick said.

"Then, with your nose filled with the smells of the Inferno, your body racked with pains of Purgatory, you can stand with Beatrice at your side, and gaze over the threshold of Paradise."

READING ORIGINAL.
Although Dante could be profitable and pleasurable reading in translated form, the speaker said, the study of the original far exceeded any Anglized version. With the aid of a good translation, notes, and a little Latin and French, the reading in the Italian was surprisingly simple.

No writer ever had a learning more tremendous nor a more tense and efficient mind than Dante. None made more subtle allusions, nor used more elaborate symbolism. Nevertheless these could be left to echo in the background, just as they could in studying Shakespeare.

SYMBOLISM.
Prof. Sedgewick compared the symbolism of Dante with Byzantine mosaics, which covered great areas, and yet were minute in their detail. They formed a perfect pattern.

All through the works of Dante were to be found evidence of the all-pervading order and system of the world in which he lived. The speaker doubted if such a work could be produced to-day.

To understand Dante properly, the reader must have a conception of the world of his time, influenced first by the conception of the universe as a system of spheres, which ruled in his day; secondly, by the dim ideal of a complete and all-inclusive empire which was the legacy of Rome, and thirdly, by the reality of a supreme

ITALIAN STUDENTS REPORT INTERESTS

New York, Oct. 19.—The 350 Italian students visiting the United States were queried in advance on what they most wanted to see in New York. And do you think these earnest youths even mentioned a musical comedy, or a night club, or even the Empire State Building? No. Their zest was for the Museum of Art, the Holland Tunnel and the power system of the New York subway.

When American students return the visit they will be obliged to manifest interest in the power system of Mussolini. International relations never will get anywhere at that rate.

was the nearest approach to the fluid rhythm of the Italian to be found in the English language. The soft endings of his day had now been lost. Prof. Sedgewick illustrated his outline of the story with sections of translations which, though "ugly," as he termed them, yet showed the spirit of the work.

FOURFOLD VALUE.
"To me the values of the 'Paradise' are these," Prof. Sedgewick concluded. "First, professionally, there is the form itself. No style that man has ever used was more straightforward than Dante's. Even at his subtlest—and Dante can be infernally subtle—he has absolute clarity of style."

"I marvel, too, at his variety. It has been said that the 'Paradise' is the least varied of the three books. True, the sinner is more salient than the saint; he has more points; but I find the aesthetic variety of this book greater than either of the other two."

"Then there is the symbolism, point after point fitting in with an impeccable surface, but with the beat of deep passion beneath."
"Finally, Dante has a mystic conception, the idea that truth can come from immediate contact, not necessarily from reasoning. Personally I cannot distinguish mysticism from illusion, delusion, hallucination; but some men can. One profit which I get from reading this book is the belief that there are other ways of getting to the truth than mine. If Dante and other poets can say with conviction and believe these things, I, too, must believe, and keep my mind open to them."

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

CHILD SHOULD WORK IN HOME,
SAYS MRS. ELDRED

The busy mother of a large family is inclined to shift responsibility only when she is too tired to pack her self, and then querulously. She is seldom willing to sit down patiently and work out a system of tasks which each child can fulfill adequately. This is a duty no one can perform for her. No outsider can map out a programme of tasks so flexible as to allow for family income, number in family and children's capacities.

It should be taken for granted, though, that no matter what the income, size of household or number of children, each child should have some tasks to perform. These increase a child's feeling of ownership in the home and its possessions. To be entrusted with adult duties-elevates his feeling of self-esteem, increasing responsibility culminates in time with a full sense of responsibility which he or she assumes when married.

ONE MOTHER'S SOLUTION

The tasks depend upon what is to be done in a home. One mother found that, despite the work of her complicated household, her four children rebelled at helping so long as she employed a maid. She dismissed the maid and gave the children full responsibility of their tasks.
The eleven-year-old boy rose at daybreak to vacuum the rugs. The thirteen-year-old daughter cooked the breakfast and helped with the other meals. The two younger children, six and seven, cleared the table, helped to do and wiped the dishes for the three meals.

COMPANIONSHIP HELPS

It worked because the children were proud of their ability to manage by themselves. They loved doing things their own way. Being the drudge of an older person, taking orders instead of assuming responsibility, these are the situations most children
find disagreeable when obliged to help.

When there is but one child it may be advisable for the mother to work with her. Where there are two children, too, may enjoy working together. Flavored with companionship most tasks get themselves done swiftly.

MAKE CHILD'S WORK COUNT

But the mother should be alert to note signs of unwillingness to cooperate and recognize that the child may want to do her work alone and in her own way.

The child finds satisfaction in work which counts, not when it is lost sight of in a task completed with someone else.

WOMEN PILOTS HAVE WORRIES

Amy Mollison and Jacqueline Cochran Discuss England-
to-Australia Race

Mildennall Aerodrome, England,
Oct. 19.—Brown-eyed Amy Mollison and Jacqueline Cochran, the only two women pilots in the England-to-Australia air race, have common worries—they say they haven't had enough experience with their planes.

Miss Cochran, the New York entrant, confessed to another trouble in trying to appear feminine enough
"when the only things you can wear while flying are man-like."

Lamenting her lack of experience with her green monoplane, two days before the race begins, Miss Cochran said, "We had a different plane entered originally, you know, but were forced to make this late substitute.
Wesley Smith and I have each had only a half-hour at the controls of our substitute."

Amy Mollison, who practiced landing twice Wednesday with her husband, said she hadn't handled the controls alone yet.

"We are in the same boat with many others because of the lack of time to gain full experience with our machine. It worries me extremely, but we are trying to get the experience possible before Saturday."

MISS SLADE AT WHITE HOUSE

Gandhi's English Disciple Visits Mrs. Roosevelt in Bare Feet

Washington, Oct. 19.—On bare, sandalless feet, Madeline Slade, English woman disciple of India's Ma-hata Gandhi, walked into the White House yesterday and emerged with a new friend.

Brilliant brown eyes flashing beneath the white cotton cap that covered her erect shoulders and much of her rough skirt of pleated brown, Miss Slade proved herself as democratic as her hostess.

"I was immensely delighted with the democratic atmosphere," she told the Associated Press. "No pomp and ceremony. You could walk up to the White House as to any homely establishment."

"I found Mrs. Roosevelt so charming, I enjoyed talking to her like I enjoy talking to a dear friend," she cannot say more.

Downtown Washington, which gaped eighteen months ago when Mrs. Roosevelt walked from the Mayflower Hotel to the White House for her pre-inauguration visit, cast even more amazed glances at the British admiral's daughter, who discarded luxury to live the humble, self-effacing life of Gandhi, when she swung along the same route.

Bare feet may be barred from courts
in Reno, Nevada, but stockings, sandalless feet walked right into the White House front door, and swiftly through its lobby to a warm welcome in the Roosevelt family quarters.

Miss Slade, expected only five minutes with Mrs. Roosevelt, she was held more than half an hour by the first lady's interested questions.
Then out she went again to the busy city, to the clicking of cameras on the White House steps.

bia's 1934 Rhodes scholar will be secretary of the Rhodes Scholarship selection committee of B.C., announced yesterday evening.

The committee will consist of Chairman Mayne D. Hamilton, Deputy Chairman Chief Justice Aulay Morrison, Judge P. Hovay of New Westminster, Rev. William Beveridge of Vancouver, P. C. Nicholas of Victoria,

Larsen of the University of British Columbia.

Beautiful Baby
Awarded $10,000

Associated Press
Chicago, Oct. 19.—Miss Marilyn Yvonne Miller, fifteen-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miller of Pierre, S.D., has been made "America's most beautiful baby" in a contest at the World's Fair, sponsored by a Chicago mail order house.

Marilyn triumphed over 114,364 other entries, whose pictures were sent in to the judges from every state in the union, and shortly will be awarded the prize of $10,000—$5,000 in cash and a $5,000 R. E. Wood College educational policy.

The poll showed the girls were substantially ahead of the boys
among the ten national prize winners.

STYLES CHANGING
EVEN FOR MEN

New York, Oct. 19.—"Down in front!" is the order for evening dresses for women in smart social circles this season.

As for men's fashions, Broad-waymen are wearing exaggerated
Norfolk coats with gathered, bal-loonish fullness across the back.
There will be navy blue, dark brown and jet black shirts this winter—and with no political significance, either.

Two girl guests at the Coconut Grove the other evening wore no stockings.

Clothing people are going to spend millions combatting the hotties, garters, underthings and stockings—fads. Rudy Vallee has no cuts on his pants.

CINDERELLA WEDS SOCIAL SCION

Charles Carey Rumsey Jr., son of the founder of the Junior League of the United States, and grandson of E. H. Harriman, is shown leaving Maloney, daughter of an East Norwich, L.I., landowner. It was a depression romance, the couple having met when working in a welfare office.

Ask Investigation Into British Arms Traffic

National Council of Women Commended By Sir Geo.
Perley For Stand on Disarmament; Mrs. Paul
Smith, M.P.P., Addresses
Ottawa Gathering

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The National Council of Women yesterday called upon the Canadian Government to take the initiative in proposing that
"a full and untrammelled" investigation be now opened into the operations of British manufacturers and traffickers in arms. The investigation, it was expressly stated, should include any Canadian subsidiaries of these firms.

On motion of Mrs. A. C. Bagley, of Vancouver, seconded by Mrs. Walter Lynn, of Montreal, the council approved the resolution sponsored by the local council of women of New Westminster.

the local council of women of New Westminster.

SIR GEORGE PERLEY
Sir George Perley, acting Prime Minister, called upon the National Council of Women to "Stand fast.
Keep up your work for peace and disarmament."

"I ask you ladies—I implore you—to go on working for this much-desired objective—disarmament," said the gray-haired statesman, who has represented Canada repeatedly at international conferences abroad.

Representing the Government of Canada at a banquet given to the National Council of Women by the Ottawa local council, Sir George substituted for Prime Minister R. B.
Bennett, who did not arrive from overseas in time to be present, Sir George shared with Mrs. Paul Smith,
M.P.P., of Vancouver, vice-president of the National Council, the main address of the evening.

Mrs. Smith turned the attention of the large and colorful gathering to the question of education. She envisioned the changed form which education must assume to meet a rapidly changing world. Swiftly she dismissed the charge that the young people of today are below standard.
As her audience laughed she quoted from an Assyrian tablet bearing the date of 2800 B.C., which declared
as follows:

"Our earth is degenerate. Bribery and corruption are everywhere. Children no longer obey their parents.
The end of the world is getting very near."

Mrs. Smith said: "Personally I am a very firm believer in young people."
From education, guidance—the next step was vocational guidance,
Mrs. Smith said.

ODD FELLOWS' ANNIVERSARY

Cumberland, Oct. 19.—Celebrating the forty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Union Lodge No. 11,
I.O.O.F., and the closing of the first year that the new hall has been in operation, members of the lodge and the sister lodge Harmony Rebekah
No. 22, held a social evening on Tuesday. Reports of the trustees of the hall were satisfactory, and they feel that the first year the hall has been in operation can be considered successful. During the evening the members of Union Lodge demonstrated some of the drill work, and the principal speaker was the Rev.
Bryce Wallace of Courtenay, who spoke on the principles of Oddfellows. A Henderson contributed songs, and the evening closed with the men served refreshments.

FOOD EXPERT COMING SOON

JANE TAYLOR ALLEN

It will no doubt be good news to the hundreds of women who last year
met Jane Taylor Allen, internationally known consultant on cooking and Director of General Foods Limited, Consumers' Service Department, to learn that she will be in Victoria again from Tuesday until Saturday inclusive of next week to conduct a free "school" in cookery, which is being sponsored by David Spencer Ltd.
Classes will be held at 2:30 on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons, and at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning. A model kitchen has been set up so that actual demonstrations can be made,
and comfortable seating arrangements have been provided for a large number. The model kitchen is so arranged that all will be able to hear and see.
Jane Taylor Allen will have an entirely new programme this year and each day she will cover a different subject. In reality it will amount to a free course in cooking. New ideas for week-day meals, Sunday suppers, luncheons, Christmas dainties, etc.

Few women will want to miss the opportunity of attending each day.

CUT THIS OUT

EXCELLENT RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS - AND HEAD NOISES

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. Scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Surgey, Inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength). Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tube is reduced. Parmit used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired result. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every sufferer who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

POLITICIANS VS. VETERANS

To the Editor:—In his address at the legion rally, Gen. Ross expressed confidence that in future veterans could rely on receiving sympathetic treatment in respect of pensions and other veterans' problems. He told his audience that both the Prime Minister and the leader of the opposition at Ottawa had given him assurances of their goodwill.

It is, of course, undeniable that results of the recent government policy of cutting pensions, a policy so stringently carried out by the medical board, has caused much real suffering.

Proof of the goodwill of the government can best be shown by the promises, with which it certifies the hardship already caused, and takes steps to prevent them in future.

Having mentioned the two older political parties, it is fair to inquire into the attitude of the C.C.F. towards ex-soldiers.

Judging by an article that appeared on August 30 in The Commonwealth (the official organ of the party) veterans have little to hope for. In part the article ran as follows:—

"Returned men who think that a varying period of time spent as slaves to a machine operated for the enrichment and preservation of their masters... entitles them to special consideration and respect for the rest of their lives"—and much more in like vein.

I protested against this gross misrepresentation, but my letter was not published.

I also wrote to the Rev. R. Connell, leader of the C.C.F. party in British Columbia, asking if he approved or repudiated the article. He replied that he failed to find anything to repudiate in it.

Is it not fair to assume from this that Mr. Connell does not recognize war service as entitling veterans to consideration or compensation?

Arliss Picture Here To-morrow

Janet Beecher staged a double reunion on the set of "The Last Gentleman," George Arliss' latest twentieth century starring vehicle showing to-morrow at the Capitol Theatre.

Her friendship with Frank Morgan, who is importantly cast in the comedy, had its origin twenty years ago, and little Charlotte (Alice in Wonderland) Henry, who plays Miss Beecher's daughter in the film, made her stage debut in "Courage," the play which ran a year in New York and made Janet Beecher an important star.

Miss Beecher and Morgan were novices in the theatre when they played small parts in "The Bachelor," the last New York production of America's great comedy playwright, Clyde Fitch. They were on the shores of stardom when next they met, for both had leading roles in Avery Hopwood's "Fair and Warmer," which ran almost two years on Broadway.

COLUMBIA THEATRE

Tropical nights, stranded beauties, bandit-fighting marines turned into chaperones, budding love in the jungles, all intermingled with laughs and action make Paramount's "Come On Marines" which opened yesterday at the Columbia Theatre, exceptional entertainment.

The story, which deals with a marine sergeant's redemption through his heroic rescue of a group of girls shipwrecked in the tropics, offers an excellent vehicle for a large cast of players who give splendid portrayals.

Where To Go To-night

As Advertised

Capitol — "Cleopatra," starring Claudette Colbert.

Columbia — Richard Arlen in "Come On Marines."

Dominion — "Servants' Entrance," starring Janet Gaynor.

Empire — On the stage: Homer's "Indoor Circus."

Playhouse — Irene Dunne in "This Man Is Mine."

Crystal Garden — Swimming.

JANET GAYNOR

AT DOMINION

Has Leading Role, Opposite Lew Ayres, in "Servants' Entrance," Opening To-day

The present offering at the Dominion Theatre is Fox Film's "Servants' Entrance," which brings again to the screen the sweethearts of "State Fair," Janet Gaynor and Lew Ayres. The two young stars are again cast opposite each other as screen lovers in an amusing and laugh-provoking comedy-drama in a modern setting.

Miss Ayres plays the part of a young society girl who has always had money enough from her father, Walter Connolly, a rich automobile manufacturer, to do whatever she pleased, and who suddenly discovers that she has been everywhere and done everything. In order to learn more about life, Miss Gaynor goes to an employment agency and secures work as a kitchen maid, in spite of the fact that she has no idea about cooking or housework. Ayres is the chauffeur of the family with whom she finally finds work, and the two of them provide much fun for the audience with their amusing quarrels, which start when Janet tried to tell Lew something about an automobile. Having invented a new type of motorboat, he is naturally resentful that a girl should attempt to tell him anything concerning a gasoline engine.

Had Leading Roles In Local Operas

Florence Gunn will appear in recital on Thursday, October 25, at the Empress Hotel with Helen Ockenden as assisting artist. Mrs. Gunn has made many friends with her singing and will be remembered as taking part in the Victoria operatic productions, "Robin Hood" and "The Bohemian Girl."

In speaking of her "Annabel," the press agent, "Florence Gunn, who is one of the original members of the operatic society," possesses a very attractive stage presence and personality, and sings well.

Veteran Horse

Clever Animal

Empire Theatre Features "Headlight" Whose Posing Is Outstanding Feature

Extremely clever and well trained are the animals now appearing at the Empire Theatre, where "Homer's Indoor Circus" is the feature attraction. This show opened yesterday and will show again this evening as well as three times to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Homer, the owners of the animals, are in charge of the programme. "Headlight," a magnificent white horse, has the stellar role. Mr. Homer explains that he and his wife have been talking to this horse since he was seven months old. He was twenty-seven years of age last April and for a quarter of a century he has been appearing before the public.

Headlight can do all sorts of tricks that are necessary for him to use his finely developed brain and his good common sense. He poses beautifully and his graceful body outlined against a cerise curtain by softly shaded lights is indeed something to remember. He rings a bell, fires a pistol, operates a cash register and does all sorts of other interesting things.

"Ginger" is a mule who proves that all mules are not stubborn. Walter is a pretty little pony who performs tricks with King Dodo, a monkey, on his back. Felix is the beautiful Persian cat trained by Mrs. Homer. Felix brought forth rounds of applause yesterday when he did some tight-rope walking across the stage.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE

Irene Dunne is the star of the comedy-drama, "This Man Is Mine," now at the Playhouse Theatre.

Betty becomes thoroughly enamored by the girl who catches him, forcing Miss Dunne to fight like a modern amazon to regain her lost mate. All this during a truce by which they remain six months together to test her power to hold him. Delightful humorous satire and intensely gripping dramatic situations mark her efforts, which finally gain success.

"This Man Is Mine" was adapted from the Broadway stage success, "Love Me in the Window," and was directed by John Cromwell. It is presented by a brilliant cast, including Constance Cummings, as the stern, stinging Blackmer, Kay Johnson, Charles Starrett, Vivian Tobin and Louis Mason.

City Also Making Drive For Voters

"Oh, I have signed up already as a voter; a man and a woman called at my home last night and put me on the list."

Replies such as this indicate to officials at the City Hall that the two registrations of voters in the city are being confused.

During this week federal election officials have been securing the city to dig up voters in preparation for the coming Dominion election. The city also is conducting a registration to complete its list for the voting at the end of the year. Many prospective voters for both lists have not understood this and do not realize they have to register twice.

The federal registration will close to-morrow. The Dominion registration, which has been on since early in September, will continue until October 31.

Property owners do not have to register, it was explained, as their names are automatically registered, but householders and new licensees find it necessary to check up.

Giving Of Charity Always Necessary

From Earliest Times People Have Been Helping Less Fortunate Citizens; Campaign To-day Reaches $14,000

Slowly but surely money is coming in for the charity drive being conducted this week by the Friendly Help Welfare Association, and welfare societies in Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt. At noon to-day the total collected had reached $14,233.50. The drive this year is for $43,500.

Down through the ages, from the earliest times, the giving of charity to less fortunate people has been recorded. This giving will probably be necessary in all times, for there are always some people in the minority, who will need aid from their fellow citizens.

In "The Book of the Dead Egyptian," written about 4500 B.C., is a chapter as follows: "I gave bread to the hungry, water to the thirsty, clothing to the naked, and a ferry to him who was without a boat. I made divine offerings for the gods and food-offerings for the dead. Save ye me; protect ye me. Enter no complaint against me on the great god. For I am one of the pure worth and pure hands, to whom ye said: 'Welcome, welcome' by those who saw him."

Responsible charity workers of Greater Victoria are hoping that this campaign will be a success and so enable the splendid work to be carried out for another year. The Victoria representatives on the general campaign committee are P. E. Winslow, Capt. W. Hobart, Moulton, R. Heiler and N. P. Ferris. Esquimalt is represented by Lady Barnard and Mrs. A. A. Ward. Saanich has a drive for new members. Mr. William Dealey and Oak Bay's representatives are John V. Johnson and Mrs. R. R. Heiler.

Donations received at the campaign headquarters at No. 6 Winch Building, to noon to-day include:

Market Notes

The market for oranges and lemons is firm and prices are still advancing.

Wholesalers report that the prices for large size grapefruit are easier, but the local market is short of the smaller grapefruit and prices for them remain steady.

The first shipment of Arizona's new crop of grapefruit came into Victoria yesterday on the M. D. Damschick.

Vancouver Island apples are still arriving on the local market and the shipment of McIntosh Red from the Okanagan is expected in the city shortly. The demand for this apple has been very good, and wholesalers report that their stocks are cleaning up.

A shipment of bananas of good quality was unloaded from the M. D. Damschick yesterday. On the same boat was a shipment of green grapes from California.

Emperor grapes from California made their first appearance in Victoria this morning.

A shipment of persimmons and pomegranates from San Francisco arrived in the city this morning.

Wholesalers report that the shipment of chestnuts which arrived recently from Japan was of the finest quality.

When he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving his motorcycle to the common danger, Arthur Clarke was fined $15 in the City Police Court this morning. Motorcycle Constable Thomas Manly testified he paced the accused at forty-five miles an hour along Douglas Street.

BOARD RULING IS QUESTIONED

Whether or not the recent ruling of the Board of Industrial Relations setting forty cents an hour as a minimum scale for road work, will apply to relief labor, is a question which is being investigated for the municipality of Saanich.

Yesterday evening the municipal council was informed that the board ruling as gazetted and Clerk R. R. F. Sewell reported he had communicated with E. W. Griffiths, relief administrator, to determine its application. If relief work is to be taken in the scope of the regulation it will considerably increase relief costs to Saanich and all other municipalities with relief schemes in effect.

TO-MORROW "Y" TAG DAY

Rain or shine, tags will be sold to-morrow on the street corners of Victoria for the annual Y.M.C.A. Boys' Work Day. The appreciation of the people of the city for the work being done among the boys by the "Y" will be proved by their response on this occasion.

To permit the work of the boys' department to cover the greatest possible number of young people in the city, boys' membership fees cannot be sold at less than $1.00 to make them self-supporting. The department is one of the greatest drains on the finances of the association. To-morrow's tag day is designed to some extent to remedy this state of affairs.

All tag days for the "Y" boys in the past have been extremely well patronized.

Cement Bridge Plan Favored

Support Secured For Resolution of Victoria Chamber of Commerce

Support for the Junior Chamber of Commerce's suggestion that consideration should be given by the provincial government to the suggestion that this proposed bridge at New Westminster should be built of cement, has been received from several quarters.

The suggestion is made on the grounds that use of cement would provide more work for British Columbia and cause the circulation of more money among British Columbia industries than would be caused by the erection of a steel bridge.

"I assure you that I appreciate the value that the building of this bridge by the use of cement would be to the cement and coal industry of Vancouver Island," Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Mines, has written to the Junior Chamber. "I have already made representations to the premier in this regard and I can assure you I shall be very glad to give the suggestion my support."

Edwin Tomlin, manager of the B.C. Cement Company, writes: "The operation of the cement industry on the prosperity of about 500 other different industries in British Columbia. We buy so many supplies from such diverse kinds of the industry that we spend flows into the entire industrial life of the province."

Byron Johnson, M.P.P., states he will be glad to support the resolution as the local labor employed in the construction of a concrete bridge is out of all proportion to the local labor employed in the construction of a steel bridge. He mentions the benefit to labor employed by towing, coal, power, etc., and other companies working in connection with the manufacture of cement and gravel.

HEAR KIPLING ON VICTORIA

A. J. Cornwell Reads Account of Visit to Northwest Before Local Club

Rudyard Kipling's impressions of Victoria, during a visit to the Pacific Northwest forty-five years ago, were read yesterday evening to the Kipling Society by A. J. Cornwell, at a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Symons, Victoria Avenue.

The reading, taken from the letters to his Indian paper which were later published under the title of "Men to Sea," are among the author's earliest works. Mr. Cornwell started at Kipling's visit to Tacoma at the height of the boom, and read his impressions of Seattle and Vancouver shortly after their great fires, and of this city in '89.

Considerable interest was also aroused when P. R. Leighton read Kipling's two latest poems, presented for the first time at the Pageant of Parliament held in the Albert Hall, London, during the summer of this year.

In the course of a brief business session it was announced that the local circle would be affiliated with the Kipling Society of London by the beginning of next year.

The last Wednesday of each month was definitely fixed as the meeting time of the club. Preliminary plans are under way for the obtaining of a traffic signal system at Yates and Douglas streets and also for the purchase of a new car to replace the old one.

Refreshments served by Mrs. Symons brought a pleasant evening to an end.

Many Mourners At Girl's Funeral

An unusually large attendance of sorrowing friends marked the funeral this morning of Jenny Gledhill, who passed away on Tuesday at St. Joseph's Hospital. ## Short-Wave Reception Is Better With a Stromberg-Carlson

The most important reason why you will exchange your present radio for a new one is to enjoy short wave programmes. For that reason we urge you test the Stromberg-Carlson in your own home before buying any of the new 1935 models. The Stromberg-Carlson is extremely sensitive for picking up weak signals at great distances, and yet there is a minimum of noise and distortion. The all-wave model illustrated is only

Revelers' New Title Contest For $25 Prize Closes Next Sunday

Still more suggestions for their new title is the call of the Victoria Revelers Club, soon to exist no more under that name. Already many entries have poured in, but the club wishes to extract every last suggestion from the people of Victoria.

The contest closes Sunday. Entries can be sent to either The Times or The Colonist.

The Revelers wish their new name to have either six or seven letters and as far as possible to symbolize the aims and spirit of their club. Their chief objects are the fostering of good fellowship, sports and community service.

To the person who submits the winning name a prize of $25 will be given.

"STOP-GO" SIGNAL COSTLY TO RUN

Police Chief Tells Council Present "Windmill" System Obsolete and Expensive

Chief Thomas Heatley to-day let the mayor and aldermen know what he thinks of the "Stop-Go" windmill traffic signal system at Yates and Douglas streets and the need for Victoria modernizing its methods.

The chief in a statement to the council made it clear that electric automatic signals are vital on the busy streets of the city as well as efficiency. During the last few weeks the police have operated the "Stop-Go" signals, the chief explained, and "despite its obsolete nature, it has proved successful in the regulation of traffic at that point."

"This hand-operated signal is only a snake-shed and would be far too expensive to operate steadily as each intersection so equipped would require the services of one man to operate the signal and also a man to patrol between intersections," the chief went on.

"Victoria is making a big bid for tourist business and such people are all accustomed to automatically controlled traffic, it is my humble opinion that if they are encouraged to visit Victoria, something should be done to make them feel at home here. Furthermore, something should be done at once to quash the reputation of the city as being the 'hardest' city in the northwest in which to drive an automobile."

"There seems little doubt that the tourist trade is on the increase and as times improve we may well expect a steady yearly increase of foreign cars. If the estimate of 5,000 more cars next year is correct, this traffic will be a heavy burden on the police department and the city without adequate facilities."

The chief recommended again to the City Council that it accept the offer for the installation as a test of one automatic traffic signal at Yates and Douglas streets without cost or obligation from now to the end of the year. He said that the work of such installation should be got under way at once in order that it may be in operation for the heavy Christmas season traffic rush on Douglas Street.

In deference to other kindred organizations the Army and Navy Veterans propose to hold a smoking concert on Saturday, October 27, at 8.30 p.m. instead of October 20, to commemorate Trafalgar Day. The concert will be held in the club quarters, 512 Port Street, and a popular and attractive programme is being arranged.

THAT DEPRESSED FEELING IS LARGELY LIVER

Wake Up Your Liver Bile . .
Without Calomel, And Feel
Like a Million Dollars.

Nothing can put your system out of kilter more quickly than your liver. All it has to do is stop pouring its daily two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels—and life certainly gets grey. That sluggish flow of bile slows up digestion and elimination and makes you "feel punk". Your stomach acts up—gas, bloating, sourness. Your bowels are bad and the taste in your mouth is nasty. Your head aches. Skin is itchy. All of course, because your system is full of poisons.

More bowel moves like salt, oil, mineral water, roughage, laxative candy—these are not good enough to correct this condition entirely. You're liver and you must wake up your liver bile to be happy again.

Avoid calomel (mercury). The thing for you is a box of Carter's Little Liver Pills. They never upset you because they're purely vegetable, gentle and safe; but how they do change your view on life!

Don't waste your money on substitutes. Be definite. Ask for Carter's by name—ask them! Look for the name, Carter's, on the label. 25c. at all druggists.

NEW SERGEANT IS APPOINTED

P. K. Cummings Given Promotion on Saanich Police Force

P. Kenneth Cummings, police constable of the Saanich force, was made sergeant to replace Sergt. R. Brown, who was recently superannuated, by the municipal police commission yesterday evening.

The promotion was made according to seniority and will become effective immediately.

Coincidentally with this action was the decision to appoint a new man to the force, to replace the retired sergeant.

Applications for this position will be received immediately and will be closed at noon on October 26. Applicants must be married and between twenty-five and thirty years of age. The man selected will serve a six-month probationary period at a salary of $100 a month.

CITY POLICE IN SAANICH?

New Suggestion Comes From Saanich Commissioner

Something new in regard to a change in the Saanich police force was suggested by Commissioner A. E. Scobie at a commission meeting yesterday evening when he offered the option of the city force taking over Saanich, rather than the provincial police.

The suggestion was only a passing remark as the commission received and filed a letter from the Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association, which urged the commission to prepare a plebiscite on the question of introducing British Columbia police into the district.

"I would sooner see the city take us over than that," was Commissioner Scobie's comment. He also questioned whether or not it would be advisable to secure figures from the city on the cost of such a change.

The commission has previously adopted the policy that the provincial force would not give the same efficiency as the present department.

The Saanich council, by by-law, yesterday evening authorized the naming of Newton Road, between Carey Road and Gladstone Avenue, and Scott Street, off Oak Street, between Cloverdale Avenue and Saanich Road.

NEURALGIA GONE After Three Doses of PHOSFERINE

"My husband arrived home from the office 'all-in' with an acute attack of neuralgia. He walked to and fro the house in great pain for nearly four hours, without a break. Suddenly I thought of Phosferine. After three doses, my husband went to bed feeling fagged out, and to our great surprise he slept quietly the night through, thanks to Phosferine. ## HUNTING IN AFRICA SAFE

Excessive Caution Always Necessary, However, Frank
Pullen Tells Local Audience

"People mustn't think there are nearly all the dangers and horrible risks hunting big game in Africa that they read about and see on the screen; there is no more danger in Africa than there is on a busy thoroughfare in any of our big cities," stated Frank Pullen, a visitor in Victoria from Ontario, recently returned from Africa, when speaking before a large gathering in the New Thought Hall yesterday evening under the auspices of the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter I.O.D.E.

"The price of safety is excessive caution," Mr. Pullen stated. "The guides out there won't take any chances. They are always particularly careful. If you take ordinary precaution and reasonable care there is nothing to worry about. There is one definite thing to remember—shoot as soon as you make up your mind. Get as close as possible to the animal. If you are too far you will probably have a wounded animal on your hands. So get as close as possible. And, if your James and your gun-bearer runs away don't turn your back on the animal. He would be on you in a minute. When you make up your mind to shoot you must carry it through to its conclusion."

TWO CLASSES
Mr. Pullen divided the big game of the Tanganyika country, where his expedition went just about a year ago, into two classes, the thin-skinned animals, such as the lion, the leopard and the buffalo, and the thick-skinned animal, like the elephant and the rhinoceros. From his own experience he said he would treat the buffalo with the greatest respect.

"A wounded lion, of course, is a nasty thing," the speaker declared. "There is nothing to worry about, however, with a lion, if you leave him alone and he has his food. We often heard them grunting, and sometimes roaring about our camp at night, but they never bothered us. I shot only one, and after I had done it I was sorry."

"Leopards are bad actors. They are quite small but wound one and he will go for you. The buffalo of Africa is very cunning. Anyone who takes one of them is advised to be careful. They are very tenacious to life."

NOT OF THIS AGE

"The rhinoceros is dangerous, naturally, but is not very vicious. I feel sorry for the poor old rhinos—they are not really of this age and they don't seem to know what it is all about. If you are out in the bush and you meet a rhino he will probably maul you entirely, if you remain very still. They have a keen sense of smell, but don't see very well. The rhino is really very easy to kill when his weight and bulk are taken into consideration."

Even in Africa the big game requires protection, Mr. Pullen said. He said he found photographing the wild animals even more difficult than shooting them. The photographer must work quickly, and very often, when everything was arranged, the subject was in the wrong position. A photographer can not expect a wild animal to pose for him.

FIVE PICTURES

Mr. Pullen brought back with him some splendid moving pictures of Africa's big game, which he showed to his audience yesterday evening. They were pictures of giraffes, lion and lionesses and their cubs, warthogs, leopards, rhinoceros, baboons and many others. His pictures showed the native hunting parties and much of the scenery of the country through which the expedition passed, some of which was extremely beautiful.

The speaker said the part of Africa where he hunted was a delightful spot, with a wonderful climate and was probably the finest place in all the world for big game.

"You never know just what you are going to meet around the corner," he said.

The vultures are the scavengers of Africa, Mr. Pullen said. They appear when anything is shot, and seem to come from nowhere. The tick birds get their living from the backs of the rhinoceros, he said, living on the ticks in the skins of the big animals. They reciprocate this courtesy by letting the rhino know when any danger approaches.

NO HARDSHIPS

"If any of you have any ambition to see the big game of Africa, you need have no fear of the hardships," Mr. Pullen said, in referring to the excellence and comfort of camp life. "Everything was delightful and well organized. The sun is strong and you must be careful always wear a sun hat or a helmet. There are some snakes, to be sure, but not enough to worry about. In the 5,000 miles that we traveled across Africa I saw only six. The natives are particularly quick in spotting snakes. There are flies and insects, of course, but not enough to be alarmed about."

Mrs. Colin Cummins, regent of the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, introduced the speaker to the gathering.

MEETING

The annual meeting of the Mt. Newton Parent-Teacher Association was held in Mt. Newton High School Monday evening, with the president, J. J. Young, presiding.

An excellent report of the association's activities for the year was given by the president. Much work had been accomplished, although the school grounds need considerable more work before being completed, it was reported.

The secretary-treasurer's annual report was read by Miss M. Lowe, showing that a number of successful entertainments were held.

The election of officers took place and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. G. W. Pottinger; first vice-president, M. Atkin; second vice-president, R. Book; secretary-treasurer, Miss M. Lowe; entertainment committee, Mrs. A. Gale, convener; Mrs. A. G. Smith,

JACK FROST

BUT LET US not speak of politics. The little boy from next door has been trying to find Jack Frost all this week. He went down the road and asked Mrs. Shipley, who was reading turnips to her cow and chickens. He came back and reported that Mrs. Shipley didn't know, and that, while the cow ate the turnips, the chickens "just knocked their noses against them."

He went up to Mr. Pudbury's, but Mr. Pudbury didn't know either. Mr. Pudbury even didn't know what happened to cows when they died, and seemed surprised when the little boy assured him that they went to heaven with his late aunt, and everybody, including the cows, had wings up there. He pursued Mr. Frost down in the vegetable garden, and saw that he had been there and tramped all the beans and squash "times down under his feet. He was assured also by Mrs. Glumby that Mr. Frost had painted the maple trees all yellow, but there was no sign of paint about.

He heard a rustling, crackling sound in the oak woods and crept up on it, thinking that Mr. Frost might be hiding there, but it was only a fat cock pheasant, who flew out with a harsh, cranky goggling sound.

He followed Raven, the Labrador retriever, who had contacted a hot scent down by the big ditch, but after a long pursuit it turned out that Raven had merely buried a bone down there and was retrieving it. His own scent was better than Raven's, for it led him straight to Mrs. Glumby's back door, from which issued the aroma of new cookies.

Solomon munching a cookie in one hand and a raw carrot weighing two pounds in the other, the little boy finally gave voice to this heresy: "I don't believe there is any Jack Frost any more at all. It's God makes the trees all yellow, or Mr. Pudbury or somebody."

Faster Way Found to Relieve Headaches

NOW PAIN OFTEN RELIEVED IN MINUTES!

Remember the pictures below when you want fast relief from pain. Demand and get the method doctors prescribe—Aspirin.

Millions have found that Aspirin cures even a bad headache, neuritis or rheumatic pain often in a few minutes!

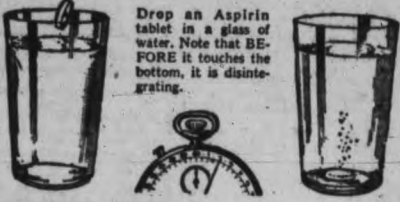

In the stomach as in the glass here, an Aspirin tablet starts to dissolve, or disintegrate, almost the instant it touches moisture. It begins "taking hold" of your pain practically as soon as you swallow it. Equally important, Aspirin is safe. For scientific tests show this: Aspirin does not harm the heart.

Remember these two points: Aspirin Speed and Aspirin Safety. And, see that you get ASPIRIN. It is made in Canada, and all druggists have it. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every Aspirin tablet.

Get tin of 12 tablets or economical bottle of 24 or 100 at any druggist's.

Why Aspirin Works So Fast

IN 2 SECONDS BY STOP WATCH An Aspirin tablet starts to disintegrate and go to work.

What happens in these glasses happens in your stomach—ASPIRIN tablets start "taking hold" of pain a few minutes after taking.

CITY COUNCIL IS CHALLENGED

Alderman's Statements Concerning Gorge Waters Untrue, Says Saanich

"We can prove that for every ounce of sewage from Saanich that there is in the upper waters of the Gorge, there is a couple of pounds from Victoria, which comes in around the mill."

This, in the words of Reeve William Crouch, was the Saanich reply to complaints which lately have been seeping out from the City Hall in regard to sanitary conditions of Victoria Arm.

On all contentions which the city has made against Saanich on this question, the municipality took the city aldermen to task, and concluded the session with an invitation to Mayor Leeming, or his representative, to join with Reeve Crouch and Reeve Alex Lockley, Esquimalt, in drafting a resolution to be presented to Dominion authorities, dealing with the construction of a drainage channel between Thetis Cove and Esquimalt harbor.

The Saanich council yesterday evening was confronted with a resolution from the city which it was asked to endorse. The resolution sought the outlet channel.

Councillor G. S. Eden thought the proposition was "the biggest lot of commyrot I have ever heard."

NOT TRUE FACTS

The council refused to endorse the request because in a preamble to the resolution it was stated the waters of the Gorge were unclean and unsanitary—a menace to public health, and detrimental to surrounding property values. It supported the principle involved, however.

It was also stated the proposed channel would provide a boatway for small craft. "If you fellows ever think you'll get up there in a boat I'll get out of bed to watch you," said Councillor Eden. Councillor W. B. Woods, Ward Four, wanted to know what the effect of the waterway would be on flood conditions at Marigold flats, a problem which the council is confronted with annually. The water in Esquimalt harbor is fourteen feet higher than in Portage Inlet, he noted.

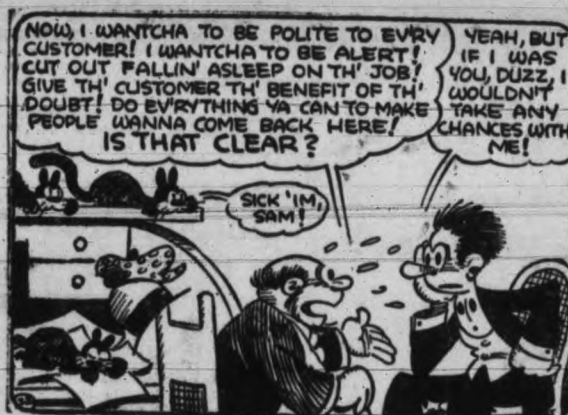

"Our medical health officer, the engineer and the clerk would bring in a report on those sanitary conditions that would astonish you," declared Reeve Crouch, alluding to the general good health of the community and the fact that the waters had been through tests. "The trouble is that the city of Victoria has a nasty smell right under its nose, but unfortunately it has to go outside before it can smell it."

Church Wars On Indecent Movies

Associated Press
Atlantic City, N.J., Oct. 18.—United States Episcopalians to-day had declared war on indecent motion pictures on a world-wide scale.

Resolutions adopted by the House of Deputies and House of Bishops at the fifty-first triennial general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, yesterday called for federal regulation of the film industry in interstate and foreign commerce, and for a boycott of "immoral" shows in every parish.

SALESMAN SAM

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

SAFETY
COMFORT SERVICE

All-the-year-round transportation is necessary . . . . . Railways alone provide it.

The obligations imposed upon a railway system are great. Primarily, these are providing and maintaining adequate and reliable transportation service throughout the whole year, regardless of climatic conditions or the costs and difficulties involved in meeting those conditions. A railway system which operated only when weather conditions were pleasant, or which did not guarantee the closest possible adherence to standards of safety, or which had no regular schedule of trains would very soon create public indignation.

To ensure that these onerous requirements are provided by the railway companies, and also to avoid undue advantage being taken by the companies whose services are so essential to the public welfare, all railways are subject to strict government regulation and supervision. They are by law required to carry a specified minimum number of crew on each train . . . to be equipped with efficient safety devices . . . to operate according to approved schedules . . . to conform to approved passenger and freight tariffs . . . to be subject to inspection by government officials at all times. In addition the companies themselves impose the most rigorous tests upon their train operators and each piece of rolling stock and each mile of track is subject to constant and careful scrutiny.

This, of course, is only as it should be. Unfortunately, however, it does not apply to all forms of commercial transportation—only to railways, which are placed at a decided disadvantage in having to compete with services operated only when the weather permits, and at times when operating costs are lowest. Further, these unsupervised services can, and do discriminate capriciously regarding the nature of the commodities they carry, and the rates they charge. While the railways of Canada pay approximately ten million dollars of taxes each year these other services are notoriously undertaxed, and, unlike the railways which run over their own properties, they increase the risk and discomforts of our already overcrowded highways.

A little thought will convince anyone that this is unfair to the railways and that—since railways are the only dependable agency for the provision of all-the-year-round transportation service—it is also hostile to the public interest. With winter approaching the importance of all-the-year-round service is easily appreciated.

The Canadian National Railways provides the best in railway service, and at all times and under all circumstances it is your efficient and unfailing servant.

Use the C. N. R. for all transportation purposes.

Wheat Prices Lower
On Grain Exchanges

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—For the first time in days, moderate export sales of Canadian wheat were reported today, but this failed to offset liberal selling on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Wheat futures prices closed 1/2 to 1 1/2 lower.

Recovery from bottom levels was made in the closing stages, but the general market tone was weak. The October option closed at 77 1/2, December 77 1/2 and May 82c.

Declines at Liverpool gave a bearish tinge to operations. Export sales were estimated at approximately 500,000 bushels. Reports indicated foreign buyers were purchasing on a "hand-to-mouth" basis and apparently preferred to adopt a waiting attitude.

Liverpool prices closed 1 to 1 1/2 lower, and declines were sustained at Chicago and Buenos Aires.

BUILDING SHOWS
RISE IN CANADA

B.C. Records Drop of 38 Per Cent, Against 42 Per Cent Rise in Ontario

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Oct. 19.—An increase of $260,881, or 15.1 per cent, was shown in the value of building permits issued in sixty-one cities in September when it stood at $2,247,784 as against $1,966,903 in the same month last year, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday. The value of building permits in the nine months ending September amounted to $19,044,000 as compared with $16,394,014 in the corresponding period of 1933.

Compared with September, 1933, there was improvement in Nova Scotia, Quebec, Ontario and Saskatchewan. The greatest gain of $341,345, or 42 per cent, was reported in Ontario. Of the declines elsewhere recorded, that of $107,202 or 38.3 per cent, in British Columbia, was most marked.

Of the larger cities, Montreal and Toronto permits issued in each case were higher than in September, 1933, while Winnipeg's permits showed decreases. Of other centres, Regina, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat recorded increases as compared with September, 1933.

WORLD COPPER
RESERVES RISE

Associated Press
New York, Oct. 19.—World copper reserves have risen by 16,282,200 tons, from an estimated 89,542,000 tons in February, 1931, to 105,824,200 tons at the present time, according to Percy E. Barbour, consulting mining engineer, who presents his compilation in the October issue of the Engineering and Mining Journal.

Chile, with 32,466,000 tons; Africa, with 22,266,400 tons, and the United States with 20,992,700 tons, retain their respective positions on the list of reserve countries, the survey shows. Europe, with 10,851,000 tons, accounted for principally by the inclusion of estimated Russian tonnage, displaces Canada in the fourth position. Canada, credited with 5,620,200 tons in the present estimate, ranks fifth in the major reserve countries.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Stop loss selling late today carried wheat down almost 2c a bushel to the lowest point reached since October 10.

Failure of speculative demand to broaden, combined with notable instability of Liverpool wheat quotations, was largely responsible.

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Oct. 19.—An increase of $260,881, or 15.1 per cent, was shown in the value of building permits issued in sixty-one cities in September when it stood at $2,247,784 as against $1,966,903 in the same month last year, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday. Associated Press
New York, Oct. 19.—World copper reserves have risen by 16,282,200 tons, from an estimated 89,542,000 tons in February, 1931, to 105,824,200 tons at the present time, according to Percy E. Barbour, consulting mining engineer, who presents his compilation in the October issue of the Engineering and Mining Journal.

Chile, with 32,466,000 tons; Africa, with 22,266,400 tons, and the United States with 20,992,700 tons, retain their respective positions on the list of reserve countries, the survey shows. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19
By Jenks, Gwynne & Co.

Associated Press
New York, Oct. 19.—Extreme dullness ruled in the stock market today and few issues exhibited a disposition to move very far in either direction. Some further interest was shown in the packing group which firmed moderately. Metals pointed lower. Numerous stocks were unchanged.

The close was irregular. Transfers approximated 810,000 shares.

Grains dropped a cent or more a bushel on late stop loss order selling. Cotton was about even. Bar silver held unchanged at 53 1/2 cents an ounce. Scattered improvement was shown in the bond list.
